OGGCamP

What is OggCamp?

- OggCamp is the largest UK (un)conference celebrating Free and Open Source Software, Free culture, the Maker movement, digital rights, education, and all manner of collaborative cultural activities.

- We have 4 parallel tracks this year, including a dedicated kids track for the first time.

- Plus the Open Hardware Jam and an exhibition running throughout the weekend!

- It’s our 10th anniversary, a decade of OggCamp this year we’ll be at:

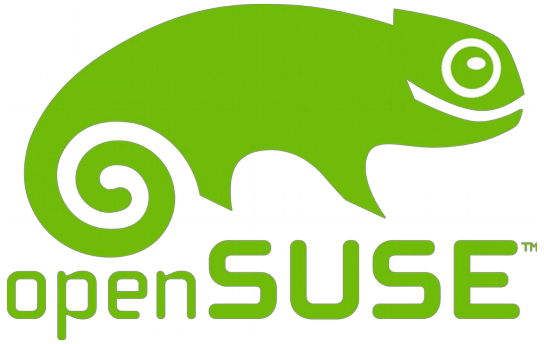
Manchester Conference Centre
19th & 20th October 2019

We'll be joined by developers and representatives of projects such as: Raspberry Pi, the Linux kernel, Ubuntu, Debian, OpenSuse, Micro:Bit, Drupal and many more!



To get a proper feel for the event please see the short intro video on our website front page: http://oggcamp.org

How can you help?

We couldn’t do this without your help and support. In return we strive to repay sponsors in every way we can. Value for money is important and many sponsors return year on year.

Here’s a quick list of sponsorship levels and benefits we can offer.

PLEASE NOTE: We are legally bound to add VAT on all sponsorship levels
